RUN DOWN BY A STEAMER.

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT IN CHESA- PEAKE BAY.

A Brother of Robert Garrett, Late President of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, Loses His Life—Nothing Definite as to
Who is Responsible For It.

BALTIMORE, June 9.—T. Harrison Garrett, brother of Robert Garrett, while yachting Thursday in Chesapeake bay, was run down
by a steamer and it is reported was drowned.

Further particulars of the accident show that the yacht Gleam, on which was a number of ladies and gentlemen, while cruising off Seven Foot knoll was run into by the steamer Joppa, bound from Baltimore for Antwerp.

The Joppa struck the Gleam on the port side just aft midship. Mr. Garrett was last seen by the steward of the Joppa standing with one foot on the deck of his yacht and the other over the railing. He had hold of one of the Joppa's chains, and when the latter vessel pulled off Mr. Garrett was dragged into the Gleam. The crew of the Joppa at once manned the life boats and cruised about until 8 o'clock in the morning, hoping to find Mr. Garrett's body.

One of the Baltimore & Ohio tugs was sent down with several gentlemen on board, friends of Mr. Garrett, who will remain on the bay until the body is recovered.

In this city, the accident is the one theme of conversation. There is a general air of suspicion pervading the business section of the city. The front door of the banking house on South street, of which Mr. Joyce was the leading spirit, is draped with crepe.

An interview with one of the Joppa's passengers telegraphed from Easton, says that Mr. Garrett's cries could be heard for half an hour after he fell into the water, but on account of the intense darkness, he could not be seen.

A cablegram was sent this afternoon to the Robert Garrett party now traveling in Europe, informing them of the sad accident.

Mr. Garrett was manager of the firm of Robert Garrett & Sons, which was founded by Robert Garrett, his grandfather. He married Miss Witridge and has two sons.
Mr. Garrett was a member of the Maryland and one of the directors of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

He was said to be a splendid swimmer.
He was a large, fine-looking man, and weighed 250 pounds. His brother, Robert Garrett, is still in Europe. Mr. Garrett resided at "Evergreen," his residence on Charles street avenue. His library is the largest private collection in the state, embracing works of the rarest and most unique character, and the most complete bibliography of the Baltimore & Ohio to be found in the country. The collection of autograph letters which he owned is unusually large and interesting, containing letters of nearly all the prominent historical personages from Washington to the present day.

The steamer Joppa belongs to the Maryland steamboat company.

The Gleam was a steam yacht about one hundred and twenty feet in length. In regard to the responsibility for the accident
there is scant information as yet. The captain of the yacht told Capt. Geoghegan that he was coming up towards Seven Foot knoll,
and gave the Joppa two whistles to go to the right and the Joppa gave him two blasts to the left. The collision resulted.

The Second Annual Reunion Held in Cincinnati Decided Success.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—The second annual reunion of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks was a success.

Elk lodges from Detroit, Pittsburgh and Cleveland, headed by excellent bands, paraded the streets Thursday and made a fine appearance. There were numerous ser-nades.

The session organized for business at 4 p.m.
at Music hall. The hall was appropriately decorated. Exalted Ruler Hadden, of local Lodge No. 5, welcomed the delegates to the city.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Henry G.
Ferry, of Chicago.

Mayor Smith made a happy address of welcome, which met with a most hearty reception from the delegates.

Exalted Grand Ruler Hamilton E. Leach responded to the mayor's address in fitting terms.

Invitations were received extending to the delegates the courtesies of the chamber of commerce, Lincoln, Duckworth and Blaine clubs, and the centennial exposition.

The election of a chairman was on the program. Brothers Allen O. Myers, of Cincinnati, John H. Dee, of Boston, and M. B.
Lemon, of Pittsburgh, were nominated.

Myers and Lemon withdrew, and Dee was chosen by acclamation. The chairma n-elect delivered an eloquent speech of acceptance.

D. C. McWalters, of the Cleveland lodge, was elected secretary, and John R. Malloy, exalted ruler of the Columbus lodge, assistant secretary.

The convention then discussed questions of interest to the order. Upon the question of the powers of the grand lodge a heated debate
took place.

A parade took place at 3 p.m. Jordan
Thomas acted as grand marshal, with Dan Dalton, James Fennessy and Robert Strauss
as aids.

A prize banner was presented to the lodge
excelling in general appearance, dress, numbers, marching, music, attendance and evolutions.

A banquet at the Highland house concluded the session.

Newsboys Play Ball.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The Detroit Journal
and New York Evening World newsboys played their first championship baseball game, at the polo grounds this morning.
The Detroit lads were victorious, the score being 16 to 9. Gallagher and Dinsmore were in the points for the Journal, while Mayer
and Donahue did similar service for the Evening World.

Cyclone and Railway Disaster.

GRANADA, NICARAGUA, June 9.—A cyclone of great severity swept over this place on the night of the 2d inst. The heavy rains inundated the south portion of the city, destroying eighteen houses. The train due here on the morning of the 2d inst., jumped the track at Potosi.

Convicted Three Times and Escapes.

AMERICUS, Ga., June 9.—Charles Blackman, three times convicted of the murder of Stonewall Tondee, an Ellaville merchant, was aided by friends to escape and is now at large.

RECEPTION TO BISHOP JOYCE.

He Is Given a Reception in Honor of His Election as Bishop.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—Rev. Dr. I. W. Joyce was tendered a reception and welcome at St.

Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, Thursday night by the congregation of the church in honor of his recent election

as bishop. The church was well filled and flowers and pot plants adorned the platform. A huge square plaque of white immortelles, with the words

"BISHOP I. W. JOYCE" in purple, rested on an easel.

The program under the direction of Rev.

Dr. C. W. Ketcham, consisted of addresses and music by the choir. The opening prayer was delivered by Rev. T. H. Pearce, and three chapters of the scripture were read by

Rev. J. J. Reed. Addresses were made by

Rev. L. F. Van Cleve, Rev. Dr. E. Cranston,

Dr. T. A. Reamy, Rev. Dr. Hays, Bishop

Fowler, of California, and Bishop Joyce.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. E. A.

Graninger, rendered some select music.

After the exercises the congregation repaired to the lecture room, where half an hour was spent in congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Joyce.

The Disease From Which He Suffers Re-

With Thurman's Nomination—He Longs

for an outing—National News Notes.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—At 11 o'clock it was stated that the general's mind had remained perfectly clear. He was resting quietly, with little or no pain, and for the time being his condition was slightly improved.

The organic diseases from which he suffers, however, remain unyielding. He was more or less delirious all through the night;

not violently, though, for he was too weak

for that; but he could not recognize the members of his family or his physicians, and refused to take any medicine or nourishment. About 5 o'clock his mind cleared and he readily took peptonized milk. The medicine was given hypodermically. Each of the several attacks which he has had lately have left him much weaker than the previous ones.

Information received from high sources

indicates no development of extended inflammation.

"The reaction continues to be well maintained. There is no elevation of temperature. Pulse, 104; respiration, 34. The mind is more clear. Food and remedies are well borne. The congestion of the lungs continues severe, but, in the absence of fever,

indicates no development of extended inflammation."

At 10:30 a.m. Gen. Sheridan was resting easily, with no especial change in his physical condition. His mind was perfectly clear

HECHINGER & CO.'S Great Liquidation Sale

These prices will give you but a faint idea of the bargains we are giving the public. COME AND SEE THE GOODS we offer you at these figures. Respectfully,

AUGUST ELECTION, 1888.
For Sheriff,
JOHN W. ALEXANDER.

PUT your money on Cleveland and Thurman. The Louisville Times says: "The magic 4-11-44 not only came out simultaneously with Cleveland's nomination, but the same fatal figures appeared on July 11, 1884, simultaneously with Cleveland's first nomination."

A STATE convention of Republican clubs was held at Lexington Thursday. Twenty-four clubs were represented. A State League was organized with the following officers:

President—W. C. Goodloe of Lexington.
Vice Presidents—Burton Vance, of Louisville; E. K. Willson, of Williamstown; H. S. Berry, of Millersburg.

Secretary and Treasurer—W. W. Huffman, of Lexington.

The Republicans of the State seemed to be alive to the importance of the coming fight, and the Democrats should throw off their lethargy and go to work.

The First on Record.

FLEMINGSBURG, KY., June 5.—(Special.) The Circuit Court adjourned to-day without a single conviction in the criminal room. This is the first time this has happened since the organization of this county in 1799. Indictments returned at this term of court are not tried until November.

The above is a special sent to the Courier-Journal. There is about as much truth in it as in many other specials sent from Flemingsburg. Only five criminal cases were tried at the term of court alluded to and there were two convictions—James Nealis was fined $50 for cutting with intent to kill and Jabez Ware was fined $90 for a similar offense.

In reference to this matter the Fleming Gazette contains the following:

Every indictment tried at this term of court resulted in an acquittal.

And in the adjoining column the following:

Jabez Ware, for cutting Max Middleton, was fined $90 and cost, in the Circuit Court last week.

In the Circuit Court, last week, James Nealis was fined $50 for cutting with intent to kill.

At the M. E. Church to-morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, Children's Day "the Feast of Flowers" will be observed. Preaching at 8 p. m. by Rev. Thomas Hanford.

MR. E. A. ROBINSON has been paid $1,000 damages by the C. & O. Railroad Company for injuries sustained in the wreck near Charleston, W. Va., last fall. Mr. Robinson presented a claim of $1,500, and the company was willing at first to pay only $700, but a compromise was effected.

SERVICES in First Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. John S. Hays, D. D. In the evening the Baccalaureate sermon to the senior class of Hayswood Seminary will be preached, by the Principal. The public generally are cordially invited to attend all the services of this church, and a special invitation is extended to young ladies to be present in the evening.

A Card.

Editor Bulletin—Dear Sir: How is it when a contract is let by the county to the lowest and best bidder that the highest bidder gets it, which the following will show? I have reference to the contract for repairing jail wall. The bids were as follows: Thos. Clooney, $185; Daniel McCarthy, $225; John Powers, $250; James Sroule, $270, and James Sroule got it. Is that fair play?

ONE OF THE BIDDERS.

FREE TURNPIKES.

Robert Hunter, A. R. Glasscock and John M. Ball, have already obtained the said sum of $2,500 from the Treasurer of Mason County under said illegal order, and are expending it and making contracts for its expenditure and will speedily expend it, unless restrained, in repairing the road and the property of the said Middle Trace Nor. Div. T. P. R. Co.; that they are remiss in the strict rules of law against the wrong and injustice of using the funds raised by taxing them (and the rest of the taxpayers of the county) illegally expended, unless this Hon'ble Court will grant them an injunction against this waste and hold the parties aiding and assisting in same responsible.

They therefore pray that the parties named in the caption as such may be made defendants thereto, and sp'ed to answer this petition, and that in the meantime, and until the further hearing of this cause, the said the Mason County Court of Claims, the Middle Trace Nor. Div. T. P. R. Co., Robert Hunter, A. R. Glasscock and John M. Ball and all the officers and agents of said court and company may be enjoined and restrained from expending said sum of $2,500, or any part thereof in repairing said Middle Trace road, or any of it and upon final hearing, they pray that this injunction may be perpetuated, and if any of said sum has been expended, that the parties making the expenditure may be ordered to restore it and pay it over with interest to the County Treasurer, and they pray for such other special and general relief as they may be entitled to.

WADSWORTH & SON for plaintiff.

The petition was sworn to by Mr. Baldwin, who stated in this affidavit that he believed "irreparable injury would result to the applicants unless the injunction is immediately granted." Judge Cole granted the restraining order and injunction. Bond in the sum of $5,000 was required. It was signed by C. B. Pearce, Hon. W. H. Wadsworth and B. F. Clift. The case will come up for trial at the July term of the court.

FREE TURNPIKES.

Messrs. Baldwin, Pearce and the Big Corporations They Represent Kickin.

They Enjoin the Expenditure of the Sum Appropriated to Place the Middle Trace Road in Repair.

The parties interested in the free turnpike movement are very much stirred up over a suit filed in the Mason Circuit Court yesterday. At the Court of Claims a few days ago they secured an appropriation of $2,500 to aid in placing the Middle Trace Pike, (Northern Division), in repair. They had bought the road, and it was to be operated as a free turnpike. It was the first step towards a free turnpike system. The money was paid over to the committee named by the Court of Claims shortly afterwards, stock was issued for the amount and turned over to the county, and the work of placing the road in repair was commenced. The suit filed yesterday is to prevent the expenditure of the sum named. It was brought by the Maysville & Lexington, and the Maysville & Mt. Sterling turnpike companies and C. B. Pearce and W. W. Baldwin. The defendants are the Mason County Court of Claims, Robert Hunter, John M. Ball, A. R. Glasscock, and the Middle Trace Turnpike Road Company, (Northern Division). Following is the petition in full:

Plaintiffs, the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Road Company, the Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike Road Company, Chas. B. Pearce and W. W. Baldwin, state the said Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Road Company is a corporation created by the laws of Kentucky under a charter dated 1827, doing business under its charter and amendments with a continuous line of turnpike road leading from Maysville, in the County of Mason, to Lexington, in the County of Fayette, with bridges, toll-houses, quarries, &c.; that the said Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike Road Company is a corporation under the laws of Kentucky created by its charter dated in 1837, doing business under its charter and amendments with a continuous line of turnpike road leading from Maysville, aforesaid, to Mt. Sterling, in the County of Montgomery, with bridges, culverts, toll-houses, &c., and that said Charles B. Pearce and W. W. Baldwin are citizens of Mason County aforesaid, and resident therein, and that each and all of said plaintiffs are large tax-payers in the said County of Mason, subject to taxation therein for all lawful county purposes, liable particularly to the burden of the ad valorem taxes regularly, each year, imposed by the Mason County Court of Claims for the purpose of promoting the objects of the laws authorizing such taxes, and that they have been and are for the current year assessed for taxation for county purposes, are liable to and will be compelled to pay the ad valorem and other taxes imposed to raise money for county purposes for the current year, and that, as tax-payers of said county, they are directly interested in the manner in which the purposes for which the money raised by taxation for county purposes is disbursed, in common with a large number of persons composing the numerous tax-payers of the county, too many to name in an action of this kind, and for whom, as well as themselves, plaintiffs sue.

Plaintiffs further state that the defendants, the Mason County Court of Claims, at its recent session, and on the 23rd of May last past, passed an order appropriating the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars in the hands of Robert Hunter, John M. Ball and A. R. Glasscock ordering the Treasurer of Mason County to pay same to them out of the turnpike and bridge fund in his hands to be used in putting in repair the Middle Trace Turnpike Road, Nor. Div., upon the condition that should the citizens who have said turnpike in charge, after the same is put in repair, fail to provide a mode or plan to keep it in good repair, then the said court should have power at any time after five years from the date of said order, finding said road in bad repair, by the necessary order to turn over said road to the county, to be taken charge of by the county, and kept up at the expense of the tax-payers in cases of other county roads. A copy of said order made on the application of certain citizens proposing to make it a road exempt from all tolls and free to the public, and a copy of said application are now herewith filed and made part of this petition.

Plaintiffs state that the said Middle Trace Road, so called, claims to have a corporate existence under the General Statutes of this State, by virtue of articles of incorporation filed in the office of the Clerk of the Mason County Court, and they now file the herewith and make part of this petition, a copy of said articles and of a certain amendment thereto filed in said office marking them as Nos. 3 and 4.

Plaintiffs state that the Middle Trace, &c., company claims to be a dredged of conveyance from James C. Owens and wife, and from W. P. Larew, commissioner, to James C. Owens the property, rights and franchises of a defunct corporation by the name of the Hill City Turnpike Road Company, under and by virtue of a sale under a decree of the Mason Circuit Court, sitting in equity in the suit of Thomas Wells, assignee, &c., vs. the Hill City Turnpike Road Company, &c., now referred to for full and correct information being part of the records of this court.

They state that said turnpike thus known as the Hill City or Middle Trace Turnpike, Nor. Div., is a dilapidated road about five miles in length, running from a point on the road of the said Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Road at or near the southern limits of the town of Washington, in Mason County, to a point on the said the Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike Road, at or near the bounds of the city of Maysville or terminating in said city as the case may be, but for all practical purposes running from the said Maysville and Lexington turnpike to the city of Maysville, throughout this entire route being lateral to said road, and to and from the same places and within one mile from said Maysville and Lexington Turnpike Road, and also within one mile of the said the Maysville and Mt. Sterling Turnpike Road.

The fragment of said road thus built by the said Hill City Turnpike Road Company, and now claimed by the said Middle Trace Turnpike Road Company, Nor. Div., is all that was ever constructed by either corporation, except a short span turning off near Washington and running rods to Wells' Creek, or near same.

Plaintiffs state that before and at date of the institution of the suit of Wells vs. Hill City Turnpike Road Company, &c., December 25, 1881, above cited, said road had been abandoned as a toll road, and its gates thrown open, because it was not fit for travel; that certain persons purchasing same at decadal sale by way of speculation, finding out after trial that it did not have travel enough upon it to put or keep it in repair as a toll road, have now, through the said the Middle Trace Turnpike Road Company, unloaded upon the Mason County Court of Claims, and seek by the aid of public money to put the road in repair and operate it as a free road, well knowing that there is not sufficient legitimate travel upon that very poor route to and from the city of Maysville to keep it in repair as a toll road.

Plaintiffs charge that said route and road has and can have no use beyond a mere neighborhood use, otherwise better supplied, than as a free lateral road calculated and designed to draw off travel from the toll gates of the said the M. and L. T. P. R. and M. and Mt. S. T. P. R., when such travel must make a free use of the roads of said companies, the plaintiffs, before it can reach the road called Middle Trace &c., and plaintiffs aver that the road thus attempted to be rendered fit for travel at public expense and converted into a county highway by the said the Mason County Court of Claims, upon the application aforesaid will be nothing else than a highway lateral to the said the M. and L. T. P. R., a direct means enabling persons to use the said the M. and Mt. S. T. P. R., on both sides of its gates without the payment of tolls.

Plaintiffs now charge that the said the Mason County Court of Claims had no authority whatever to make such an appropriation to repair the road in a private corporation and above all no authority, power or strength by law to make such an appropriation to purchase or set free the entire mileage at the expense of the tax-payers as there is to repair and set free the so-called Middle Trace, and that the claim of authority to appropriate the funds of the county, raised by taxation, by the said Court of Claims, is one of the first magnitude as there is no limit upon the ad valorem rate which said court may impose upon said tax-payers for subscriptions to the capital stock of turnpike road companies (toll roads) or to the construction of roads and bridges in the county.

Plaintiffs therefore charge that the said appropriation of $2,500 is illegal as being without authority and strength in the said the Mason County Court of Claims and as being in aid of an illegal object, to-wit: The establishment of a lateral road to the said the M. and L. T. P. R. contrary to the statute.

Plaintiffs state that the defendants, the said

TEMPERANCE IN LONDON.

THE NUMBER OF ABSTAINERS GREATLY UNDERESTIMATED.

A Respectability Given to the Banners Not Shown in Other Countries—European Nations Quarreling Over Africa Like Dogs over a Bone—Foreign.

LONDON, June 9.—The number of temperance people in London has been greatly under-estimated by those outside the ranks. The recent meetings for the purpose of protesting against the compensation portion of the government's county program have been the means of awakening those who have sneezed at the cold water fraternity and looked upon them as a mere handful of fanatics. But even these meetings do not afford a correct estimate of their strength, for it is only the aggressive and clamorous declaimers of strong drink who identify themselves with such gatherings.

The moderate temperance men, including nearly all the Society of Friends, largely swell the number of abstainers, but who work in a quiet way. The latter are doing a great deal to lessen the number of public houses in England, but though statistics show that drunkenness is on the decline, considering the increasing population, those who are compelled to traverse the streets late at night would hardly credit such a statement.

The publicans lament that they have fallen upon evil days, cry out upon their persecutors, and declare that there is no money in the business, but the frantic outcries of those who are refused licenses do not sustain their assertions. The more wealthy and influential of their number rely upon the power of the brewers and the support of the upper classes for protection, and look at the question with indifference.

The government by knighting successful brewers of ale and porter had given a respectability to the business, which it does not possess in other countries. So with powerful friends at court, the higher class of publicans fear nothing from laws and temperance agitation.

Every Nation Wants a Slice.

LONDON, June 9.—The Italian consul at Zanzibar has hauled down the Italian flag and suspended relations with the sultan. An Italian man-of-war is expected to arrive shortly. The city of Zanzibar on the island of that name, on the east coast of Africa, has now a population of 100,000. The island, together with the territory of Sultan Bargash ben Said, on the mainland, which was delineated in 1855, was some time before recognized as independent. Since 1853 England has ceased to encourage a political reliance of the sultan, and as a result Italy, France and Germany have all sought to acquire influence in Zanzibar, although it is economically a dependency of British India.

Of late England and Italy have been going hand in hand in their African colonization schemes, and Italy now revives an old commercial treaty made with the predecessor of Sultan Bargash, which the latter refuses to fulfill. England desires Italian influence in Zanzibar to counteract in some measure the growing colonial strength of Germany in central Africa.

Nearly every nation of Europe within the last decade has seized upon a portion of Africa, and the conflict of interests is likely in the not remote future to set Europe by the ears. They are snarling and growling already like dogs over a carcass.

The Opinion of Bismarck's Organ.

BERLIN, June 9.—In commenting upon the eventuality of a change of ministry, Bismarck's organ, the North German Gazette, says: "Such a change would not be of grave importance, if it resulted in only showing the capacity of opposition. Symptoms of instability and disunion in the ministry would be more serious. They would serve to depress the confidence of friends of the ministry to encourage the hopes of their opponents, and to lead the latter to conclude that the ruling powers were no longer what they were, while the task of the ministry would be especially difficult."

The Gazette does not believe in sacrificing the country's interest to personal feelings.

Wants to Resign.

LONDON, June 9.—The St. James Gazette has a dispatch from Berlin, which says that Minister Von Puttkamp had asked the emperor's permission to resign, this decision being reached, owing to the contents of an autograph letter which the minister received last evening from the emperor.

Egypt's Cotton Crop Good.

CAIRO, June 9.—In Upper Egypt the cotton crop is forward and is in an excellent condition. In some of the delta provinces, however, it is backward but healthy; the season is cold. Water is abundant.

Not Going to Resign.

LONDON, June 9.—Col. Kling-Harmon denies the report that he is to resign the under-secretaryship of Ireland.

Foreign Notes.

The emperor of Brazil continues to improve.

Frederick has had a coughing spell, but is better.

The whole line of the Nicaraguan canal will be located by June 10.

The Paris Journal des Debats says the Panama canal lottery loan will be issued on the 27th inst. at 3.60.

At Monaco Thursday a Brazilian named Raoul Herques, while dining, shot his brother and sister-in-law and then committed suicide.

The German quinquennial parliament bill has been officially published without the emperor's letter, and the resignation of Minister Von Puttkamer is in obedience.

Drowned By a Fish.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., June 9.—While cassetting on the falls Charles Murphy, experienced fisherman, was drowned by being pulled into the river by an enormous-sized catfish, weighing fully 250 pounds. Murphy's line extended from the net to his wrist. He was unable to remove it, and was as completely at the mercy of the fish as if he was a minnow. The body cannot be recovered at present. The general belief is that the drowned man is being dragged wherever the fish can swim.

Indiana Episcopal Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 9.—The second day of the Episcopal convention consisted of interesting jubilee services, Dr. E. A. Bradley, of Brooklyn, delivering the anniversary sermon. A feature of the services was the presentation to Bishop Knickerbocker by clergymen of the diocese of a pastoral staff, which
